

Project Engineer & Team Lead

Location: Kansas City, MO

Exempt/Non-Exempt: Exempt

Position: Full Time

Benefits: Health, Dental, Life Insurance, 401(k), Employer Matching & Goal Sharing Plan, Paid Vacation and Holidays, Training and Advancement Opportunities

Description:

Western Forms is a world leader in supplying concrete forming solutions for builders and contractors and has an immediate opening for a project engineer with construction management and CAD experience. The position will provide supervisory and customer service opportunities to a solutions oriented individual.

Western Forms is an action driven company looking for project leaders that can schedule and direct a team focused on manufacturing support, sales support and providing creative solutions to customers who pour concrete. Please visit www.westernforms.com for examples of the successful customer solutions Western Forms has offered its clients.

Duties:

- Direct a team that creates forming solutions and production drawings
- Manage projects, resources and hours associated with engineer to order production and problem solving
- Communicate and respond to customer driven requirements
- Create project tracking tools and measure effectiveness of service delivery to internal and external customers
- Identify and lead process improvement initiatives

Qualifications:

- Candidates will have a BS in Engineering, Construction Science, or Technology
- 3-5 years of project management in construction or heavy equipment manufacturing
- 2 years supervising and directing a team
- 2 years working with customer of field services preferred
- Thorough knowledge of CAD software
- Applicants should have a strong work ethic, an action orientation, solid written and verbal skills, and closed loop time management skills